If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period.

The Registrant's quarterly report on Form 10-QSB could not be filed within the prescribed time period because of the Registrant's limited resources. One of the Registrant's key staff members responsible for overseeing the preparation of the Registrant's periodic reports was not available to prepare the quarterly report. As a result, on August 12, 2008, the Registrant retained an outside consultant to oversee the preparation of the quarterly report. The outside consultant has been coordinating closely with the Registrant's accountants, Child, Van Wagoner & Bradshaw, PLLC, and has been working diligently to complete Registrant's quarterly report. However, as of the date of this report, the Registrant has not yet completed the preparation of the Registrant's quarterly report.

The Registrant is a small company with limited resources available to dedicate to the preparation of this quarterly report on Form 10-QSB, despite having engaged an outside consultant to assist the Registrant in the process. These developments put a tremendous strain on our scarce resources and diverted our attention towards assessing their implications in terms of both the reporting issues as well as the financial issues.
